

STATE ELECTRICAL CODE ONE DAY WORKSHOPS FOR CONTINUING EDUCATION REQUIREMENTS

One day in-depth training designed for:

Code Enforcement Officials
Designers
Engineers
Contractors
Electricians
Maintenance Personnel

Presented By: The NC Ellis Cannady Chapter, IAEI; The NC Dept. of Insurance, Office of State Fire Marshal; and The NC Association of Electrical Contractors

These courses when offered during the fiscal year 2011-2012 meets the requirements of the NCBEEC for eight-(8) contact hours of continuing education credit. This course is not sponsored by the Board. Courses meet the requirements of the NCCOQB.

Dear Ladies and Gentlemen:

We have an opportunity before us that will help all. We are bringing these educational seminars to areas near you to try and cut the cost of continuing education. Monies raised will go to our educational efforts. We at the NC Ellis Cannady Chapter urge you to attend, so you may increase your knowledge and help us in continuing to improve our industry.

Respectfully Yours,
Education Committee Chairman, NCECC IAEI
Mitchell Bryant

The North Carolina Department of Insurance, Office of State Fire Marshal, in cooperation with the North Carolina Ellis Cannady Chapter of the International Association of Electrical Inspectors, and the North Carolina Electrical Contractors Association, is pleased to support these instructional seminars for Inspectors and Contractors in North Carolina. Our mutual goal is to fulfill our educational responsibilities and continue to keep our industry at the top levels of knowledge, safety, and service to the citizens of North Carolina.

Sincerely,
Ron Chilton, State Chief Electrical Engineer/Inspector

The NCAEC is pleased to be part of the team in these classes to promote electrical education. Electrical Contractors and Electrical Inspectors are part of a team to insure that electricity is installed in a safe manner. This team is vital to the electrical industry and to make sure that every player has the same understanding you need to attend one of these classes. Look forward to seeing you at one of the classes.

Sincerely,
Terry Cromer
Executive Director, NC Association of Electrical Contractors
